CONDITIONAL PARDON CHECKLIST

Before submitting your application, please ensure that you have complied with all application instructions and have reviewed the checklist information provided on this page. Incomplete applications will not be forwarded to the Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles for voting consideration.

Eligibility

Did you review your eligibility for conditional pardon consideration by reviewing board rules governing conditional pardons?

According to board rule 143.22 (see attached), the board will consider a request for conditional pardon only after minimum statutory parole eligibility has been attained.

Completing the Conditional Pardon Application Form

Did you complete the application form as instructed? Review to ensure that you have complied with all instructions, including the following:

- (1) Type or print legibly in black or blue ink;
- (2) Do not alter the presentation of the application by reformatting or rewriting the form, and do not bind or staple the application;
- (3) Respond to all items, if necessary using "N/A," "Unknown," "None," or "Do not remember;"
- (4) For each conviction, complete application pages titled "Criminal History Information" and "Subject's Version" as instructed, with a complete and detailed Subject's Version of Offense with location, offense date, law enforcement agency involved, events leading up to the offense and your extent of involvement in the case;
- (5) Sign with your full name the application form with a date of signature.

Certified Court Documentation

Did you provide appropriate certified court documentation (indictment, judgment & sentence) for all offenses for which the offender was convicted and is currently serving time in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice – Correctional Institutions Division (TDCJ-CID)? Acquire these certified documents from the office of the District Clerk of the county of conviction.

Offense/Arrest Reports

Did you provide offense reports for all offenses for which the offender is currently serving time in TDCJ-CID? The documents do not need to be certified. Acquire these documents from the appropriate law enforcement arresting agency. For example, if arrested by the Austin Police Department, you must request offense reports from that agency. If arrested by the Travis County Sheriff's Department, you must contact that agency.

If you are unsure of the arresting agency, you may access public record information pertaining to criminal convictions and deferred adjudications by accessing the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) Crime Records Service website <http://records.txdps.state.tx.us/>; or you may contact DPS to request assistance in acquiring criminal history information.

TEXAS BOARD OF PARDONS AND PAROLES RULES

Subchapter B. CONDITIONAL PARDON

§143.21. Definition

A conditional pardon is a form of executive clemency which, upon request, may be recommended by the board to the governor, except in cases of treason or impeachment, and if granted, serves to release the grantee from the conditions of his or her sentence and/or any disabilities imposed by law thereby, subject to the conditions contained in the clemency proclamation. A person released pursuant to the terms of a conditional pardon is considered for the purposes of revocation thereof to be an administrative releasee, §141.111 of this title (relating to Definitions), and all such revocation proceedings are governed by the sections for revocation of administrative release, §§145.41-145.55 of this title (relating to Revocation of Administrative Release (Parole and Mandatory Supervision)).

§143.22. Consideration of Request

The board will consider a request for conditional pardon, only to release an inmate to another country or in cases where extreme, exceptional, and unusual circumstances exist, and only after minimum statutory parole eligibility has been attained.

§143.23. Revocation of Conditional Pardon

(a) A conditional pardon may be revoked if the terms and conditions of the clemency proclamation are breached. All such revocation proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the sections applicable to an administrative releasee who is the subject of the revocation process.

(b) The provisions of §145.41(a) of this title (relating to Allegation of Violations: Review and Initial Disposition) apply, except that the board or parole panel, on order of the governor, is responsible for ordering the issuance of any warrant upon being notified by the Pardons and Paroles Division that a violation has occurred. The warrant shall issue to appropriate law enforcement authorities, authorizing any sheriff, peace officer, or other addressee named therein to arrest and hold the named releasee until further order of the governor or the board or until such time as he may be placed in the custody of an agent of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division, or until further order of the governor or the board.

§143.24. Request of Governor

The board shall consider a recommendation for conditional pardon in any case upon the request of the governor (Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 42.18, §18).
